GREAT DAY FOR W. GARTH

VIRGINIA TRAINER SADDLES TWO HEAVILY BACKED WINNERS AT FORT ERIE.

Wins Grand Canadian Steeplechase for Ral Parr with Ringmaster and Takes Two-Year-Old Purse with Carousel, a Long Shot.

Buffalo, N. Y., August I.—The Grand Canadian Steeplechase, a handicap over the full course, to which the Niagara Racing Association added $1,200, was provided as a feature at Fort Erie this after-toool. It brought out a small field, four going to the post. Two of them were trained by William Garth and one of the others by L. Garth, so it was very much of a family affair. The race proved little more than an exercise gallop for Ringmaster, which won after leading for the entire running by a half dozen lengths. Ringmaster was ridden by William Hallen, and coupled with Gun Cotton, was a well-backed favorite. St. Abe, which finished second, was making his first start in many weeks and while he fenced well and showed good speed, lack of condition told in the final quarter and he tired. The tabled history of the Grand Canadian Steeple-chase is as follows:

They were all here to participate in the clean-up and the colt was backed from 30 to 10 to 1. Busy, which was claimed from Mr. Garth on Tuesday last, won the closing dash, in which he beat the Schorr representative, John Reardon.

Three favorites scored, all of them being at odds. The successful choices were: Buckhorn, 2 to 9; Ringmaster, 4 to 5, and Carlton Club, 3 to 5. The stewards imposed dines on jockeys Willie Allen, T. Davies and McTaggart for rough riding vesterday. Allen was fined $50 and the others $25 each.

Allen, T. Davies and Mc1aggart for rough thank gesterday. Allen was fined $50 and the others $25 each.

A number of officials interested in the Canadian tracks were present this afternoon. Among them were George M. Hendrie of Windsor; W. P. Fraser of Toronto; W. M. Northey of Montreal; Fred Gerhardy of Windsor, and A. R. Loudon of Hamilton. Lesses. Fraser and Northey came in the interest of the stakes to be run during their meetings which have a closing tomorrow. Horsemen are entering liberally in them and every indication points to splendid meetings at both Blue Bonnets and Windsor. Mr. Loudon reports that the Hallenbeck horses, now being rested at Saratoga, will be shipped to Hamilton next week. The string includes some of the best racers on the tuff today. Carroll Shilling is the stable jockey and he, too, will be on hand to do the riding.

Thomas C. McDowell has decided to ship his stable to Maryland at the conclusion of the Hamilton meeting.

John W. Schorr will probably split his stable, sending part to Kentucky, while the remainder will inish the season on the Canadian tracks.

John Hachmeister and Harry F. Brievogle, who were here looking after the closing of the stakes to be run on the Kentucky tracks, reported liberal entries for the various events. The horsemen who made nominations included John W. Schorr, E. R. Bradley, Wayne O. Joplin, Phil Hyams, Gallaher Bros., J. W. May, John G. Greener, Francis J. Pons, James MacManus, R. J. Mackenzie, W. H. Baker, L. H. Adair, William Wallace, R. P. Marshall, Frank Brown, W. F. Schulte, James Fitzsimmons.

L. H. Adair, William Wallace, R. P. Marshali, Frank Brown, W. F. Schulte, James Flizsimmons, Howard Oots, W. G. Yanke, J. B. Respess, and Mrs. L. A. Livingston, C. R. Fleischmann claimed George Eno out of the fifth race. The colt cost him $1.200 and probably is a bargain at that price.

While exercising the two-year-old Private Flag. While exercising the two-year-old Private Flag. Lounsberry met with an accident and suffered a broken leg. The filly was going the wrong way of the track and, becoming frightened, bolted for the inside fence and threw Lounsberry. Private Flag's injuries were a deep gash on the chest and a long cut on lone of her foreless.

BOOKMAKERS' BURDENS IN AUSTRALIA.

An Australian exchange states that the State Executive Council have adopted a new regulation, submitted by the Victoria Racing Club, relating to bookmakers on the Flemington race course. It provides that, in addition to the ordinary charges levied upon bookmakers, the latter and their clerks shall be required in future to pay the ordinary charges of admission to the respective race course divisions in which the betting rings are situated. Hitherto bookmakers and their clerks have been admitted to the course on the payment of a nominal fee of one shilling each.

RACING BEGINS AT BUTTE,

Three Thousand in Attendance at Opening in Spite of Unfavorable Climatic Conditions.

Butte, Mont., August 1.—After a heavy night's rain, the track for the opening day of the Butte Jockey Chub's meeting was muddy, with the sky cloudy and the weather threatening. These adverse conditions did not deter the Butter racing enthusiasts from coming out to the course in force. There were fully 3.000 persons present, including prominent people in all walks of life in this city and the surrounding country. Among the prominent clizens present were Sheriff John O'Rourke, Dr. J. M. Scanland, County Attorney Thomas Walker and Sheriff O'Keefe of Deer Lodge County.

Sixteen layers were in line, among them being W. R. Engstrom, Joe Rose, Gus Bluhm, Bryon McNutt, John Lewis, Will Hall, John Troy, Fred Frankel, Joe Devine, Sam Summerfield, Frank J. Grefer, Billy Semper, B. Withers, Pete Ryan, Charley Petingill and W. Molesey. The layers reported that there was an abundance of wagering and they lost heavily on the day's results.

Favorites fared poorly. Lochiel, from the Bedwell stable, broke badly in the principal race, not being straight when the barrier went up. He was ridden hard all through the race but could not make up the ground lost at the start.

Jockey J. Henry rode Envy from the outside straight across to the inner rail after the field had left the barrier in the third race, forcing the favorites, Al Bloch and O'Konite, to pull up and destroying their chances entirely. The judges fined jockey Henry $25 for rough riding.

Wicket fell in the homestretch, but jockey Cotton escaped unhurt.

HIGH CLASS HORSE GOES TO AUSTRALIA.

James de Rothschild has sold Bronzino to Samuel Hordern of Sydney, New South Wales, If all is well the horse will be shipped to Australia next month.

James de Rothschild has sold Bronzino to Samuel Hordern of Sydney, New South Wales. If all is well the horse will be shipped to Australia next month.

Without exaggeration it can be stated that he is out and away the best horse that has ever been sent to the Commonwealth. Bred in 1907 by Francis Luscombe, at the Tilgate Forest Stud in Sussex, he passed into the possession of Mr. Rothschild as a foal. He was slow in coming to hand. In 1910 he began by running third for the West Derby Stakes at Liverpool and third in a race at Kempton Park. Then came his first success, for at Newbury he won the Greenham Stakes of $4,395, beating Lonawand and Tressady, the latter of whom was recently sent to Australia as a stallion. After running unplaced in the Two Thousand Guineas, Bronzino was prepared for the Grand Prix de Paris, and everybody will remember the astonishment with which we in this country received the news that he had finished third to Nuage and Reinhart, with Charles O'Malley and Lenaberg behind him. Lemberg, of course, had just previously won, and Charles O'Malley finished third, in the Derby. There was a tendency to assume that Bronzino's performance in Paris was a "fluke." We did not yet realize his merits.

In the St. Leger, Bronzino ran Swynford to a head, with Lemberg third. One stride past the post Bronzino was in front. Behind him were Winkipop and Rosedrop, the winners of the One Thousand and Oaks. The race was run in record time. It had now clearly been proved that the son of Marco was well up to the classic standard of excellence. By way of showing his hardiness he came out again two days later and won the Doncaster Cup (two was larged third, one strength of these achievements he started favorite for the Gecarewitch with the substantial weight of 110 pounds on his back. And finished fifth. Four days before the race he bruised his heet, and was stopped in his work.

No more was seen of him that season, but the following year, carrying 121 pounds, he was placed third to Mushroom and Demosthenes in the

DUFFERIN FAVORITES FAIL TO SCORE.

Toronto, Ont., August 1.—Backers of favorites had another disastrous experience at Dufferin Park this afternoon, only one pronounced first choice earning brackets. Song of Rocks and Grania were two well-backed "good things" that scored. The attendance, although lighter than yesterday's was good. Several keen and exciting finishes were witnessed. Martre, backed from 20 to 1 to 6 to 1 in the third race, showed the way for three furlongs, but finished a poor third.

Jockey Davenport drew a two-days' suspension from starter Murray for disobedience at the post on Gift.

L. M. MacClemmy, vesterday, regular and the content of the conte

L. M. MacClemmy yesterday purchased Chemulpo from J. S. Baldwin for $400. The association announced today that commencing on Saturday all purses will be $300, with a $400 handicap daily, while on Monday, the civic holiday, a handicap with $500 added will be given.

WINNER OF BERLIN'S BIG RACE.

The Grand Prize of Berlin (one mile and a half, value $18,500), which was run Sunday, July 14, at Grunewald, attracted only five runners. It was won pulling up by Freiherr S. A. von Oppenheim's three-year-old colt, Dolomit, which was ridden by Archibald. Dr. Lemke's Mischa (Spear) was second and the Messrs, von Weinberg's Carino (Fox) third, the last pair being the Graditz Stud's Granat and Kreuzer. Dolomit is by Ard Patrick—Danubia, by Saphir—Austria, by Ayrshire—Orsova. The last named, by Bend Or—Fenella, was in J. Simons Harrison's stud in England, and was sold to Baron Harkanyi for 1,100 guineas in 1899, with a colt-foal by Kilwarlin, and corered by Persimmon. Dolomit belongs to No. 6 family. The Ferror Rennen (seven furlongs, value $3,400) was appropriately annexed by Messrs, von Weinberg's six-year-old, Fervor, by Galtee More—Festa.
